

Rosalyn Eubanks

Rosalyn Eubanks currently serves as Recording Secretary for the Baltimore County Federation of Public Employees. She previously served in the capacity of Area II Vice-President before she was voted by her peers to serve in her current capacity. She has been employed with Baltimore County Department of Corrections for more than 20 years.

Rosalyn has first-hand experience in understanding the concerns of Baltimore County employees. Rosalyn has participated in various union events which include mobilization efforts and serving on various committees during local AFT- Maryland and AFT-National conventions. She has worked on the front-lines to assist in various food and toy drives to help other union members in need. She has been an ear for union employees to address work-related concerns.

She has been a constant voice for employees not only within The Baltimore County Department of Corrections, but as well as employees within 911 Communications, the Health Department, etc. Rosalyn is seeking your support to continue her efforts to ensure health and safety concerns regarding all Baltimore County employees have been resolved in addition to working to pursue the Memorandum of Understanding between BCFPE employees and Baltimore County continues to remain in effect.