

BCFPE Endorses Vicki Almond for County Executive

“Vicki has a proven record of delivering results and the progressive vision to make Baltimore County an even better place for families.”

01/24/2018- The Baltimore County Federation of Public Employees (BCFPE) is pleased to announce their Official Union Endorsement of Vicki Almond for Baltimore County Executive.

After careful consideration, the BCFPE Executive Board has endorsed Vicki Almond based on candidate interviews, polling of membership and candidate's record.

BCFPE believes Councilwoman Vicki Almond is the best choice to lead Baltimore County. Vicki has a broad record of delivering results and has the progressive vision to make Baltimore county even better for families. Vicki has demonstrated great employee-employer relations, has advocated for employee labor law reforms, and has shown overall commitment to creating an environment where county workers can focus on their jobs. Vicki Almond is the best candidate with the proven leadership needed in this difficult economic recovery period.

Baltimore County Employees look forward to working with Vicki Almond through 2018 and beyond.
